THE KENTUCKY LIBRARY CONCERTS.

These Concerts are given by the Trustees of the Public Library of Kentucky, under authority of a special act of the Legislature, and became a law March 16, 1871, to establish a great free library in Louisville, Ky

Three have already been given. The first, December 16, 1871, when $192,500, divided into 721 gifts, was distributed; the second, December 7, 1872, at which 1,000 cash girts, amounting to $375,000, were distributed, and the third, July 8, 1873, when the sum of $:00,000 in cash was divided into 10,000 cash gitts and distributed among the ticket-holders

The Third Concert and Drawing, which came off in Public Library Hall, July 8, was the most successful thing of the kind that has ever taken place in this country. Tickets to the number of 100,000-all that were issued-were sold, and for some days before the drawing none were to be had except from those who had bought to sell again on speculation.

The capital gift of $100,000 was drawn by Mr. L. H. Keith, of Kingston, Mass., who purchased 11 tickets March 3, 1878, for which he paid $100. The second gift, of $50,000, was drawn by Mr. Willis

Wor ey, ot Giles county. Tennessee. The third gift, of $25,000, was drawn by Mr. O. A. Knapp, of the firm of James A. Clark & Co., liquor merchants in this city.

The fourth guit, of $20,000, was sold by Henry Wilken. Cashler of the National Bank of Lebanon, Ky., to a party of gentlemen in and about that city.

The other 9,996 gifts, ranging from $10,000 in value down to the price of a ticket, were drawn by persons scattered all over the world-some in almost every State, Territory, county and district in the United States.

All these gitts have been promptly paid, without any discount, on presentation of the tickets entitled to them, and the balance of the gross proceeds from the sales of tickets, less expenses, appropriated to the uses of the
